

Tackling Adaptation Through Partnerships

Advantages of Partnerships

- New Perspectives
- Leverage strengths
- Share the workload
- Not competing for resources
- Less likely to duplicate
- Often tackling same challenges
- Funders love partnerships

Partnerships

Non-Governmental Organizations

Pan Territorial

Consultants

National Organizations

Regional

Between Communities

Academics

Aboriginal Governments

All Levels of Government

Communities and Climate Change

Workshop organized with Pembina
Institute and Ecology North

2 1/2 years ago

Findings plus Gap Analysis formed
Resolutions to set Association
Mandate

Resolutions

- Climate Data
  - Partners
    - Association of Yukon/Nunavut Communities
    - Risk Sciences
- Research
  - Partners
    - Ecology North / Pembina Institute – Guide
    - GNWT

- Hazard Mapping
  - Partners:
    - Other Territorial Associations
    - Risk Sciences/McGill
    - GNWT – ENR
    - GNWT – MACA - HIRA
- Adaptation Plans
  - Pembina Institute/Ecology North - Guide

- Permafrost
  - Lead
    - Territorial Gov’t – Homeowners Guide
- Communication
  - Partners
    - Ecology North/Pembina Institute/Rural Secretariat
    - AANDC – Permafrost Video

- Transportation
  - Lead
    - Department of Transportation
- Standards
  - Lead
    - AANDC/Standards Council/CSA
    - Volunteers
- Economic Impacts
  - GNWT / Federal

QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS

Have a Partnership Idea
you want to talk about?

sara@nwtac.com

